

MB92 Group reinforce commercial activity in The Middle East through the creation of new regional business development position

MB92 Group appoints Saif Al Rahbi as Business Development Consultant – Middle East Region

The MB92 Group, the world leading superyacht refit group, announced today the appointment of Saif Al Rahbi as Business Development Consultant – Middle East Region to represent the group and support commercial activity in the area. Based in Oman, Saif will provide local support to existing clients and build new relationships in the region, ensuring the group continues to meet the growing demand for their refit services from across the Middle East.

Saif brings over 29 years of industry experience to the position, and in his previous role as Technical Director of a well-known Middle East yacht organisation, oversaw the builds, refits and guarantee dockings of a number of superyachts. Saif also has extensive experience of project management, as well as the management of procurements and contracts.

Commenting on the appointment, Henk Dreijer stated that “We are fortunate to have built close working relationships with a number of clients in the Middle East over the years and the addition of Saif to the Business Development team underlines our commitment to them and the region. We have worked closely with Saif on a number of significant projects and have seen first-hand the level of professionalism, dedication, and expertise he brings to the table. We are delighted to welcome him to our team.”

Saif added that “I have had the pleasure of working closely with MB92 during the last few years and we share the same values and approach to delivering a world-class service to clients. The group has forged a strong reputation in the Middle East for nurturing their commercial relationships, dependability and for delivering results. I am proud to be representing the company and am confident that I can help bring further success.”
